

Liam Whittle

Personal Profile

I am a passionate and determined software development graduate that supports a strong understanding of object-oriented programming and the agile methodology. I particularly enjoy learning new things about coding as well as discovering new and useful software tools and would love to continue to develop my understanding in these areas. I am seeking an entry-level position as a junior software developer within a reputable software development company that will help me build on the current knowledge I have gained in my studies.
